Transcarpathia is the most western region of Ukraine. It shares borders with four countries of EU: Poland, Slovakia, Hungary and Rumania. Multiethnic tolerant and peaceful motherland for people more than 130 nationalities was created in Transcarpathia. In the hardest periods, when news from Ukraine scared western partners – they went safely in Transcarpathia, which was the part of European civilization for a period of centuries. Now, when Ukraine had become a member of EU for the present, the whole our country joined new association of Europa.

We call for activation of work on Ukrainian market, and reject uncertainty and prejudice – Ukraine needs EU so the more actively we will work with EU, the more benefits it will give to both parties.
